In a world of mediocrity
a firm that listens and performs...

The firm...

Hayfield Robinson is a focused practice firmly committed to providing a first class service based around listening to clients needs and applying a depth of knowledge, skill and experience to deliver the best solutions.

With a combined experience of over 30 years Chartered Surveyors Ian Hayfield, Justin Robinson combine with an enthusiastic and valued team to offer best advice combined with personal attention.

With offices strategically placed in Central Bradford and Central Keighley the practice offers unrivalled coverage of the area and excellent meeting facilities.

Our aim is simple - to be the best

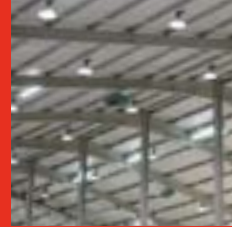

...that delivers a first class service

- Commercial Property Sales, Letting & Acquisitions
- Valuations & Surveys
- Rent Reviews & Lease Renewals
- Planning & Development
- Land Sales
- Investment Sales & Acquisitions
- Property Management
- Business Rates
- Schedules of Condition and Dilapidations

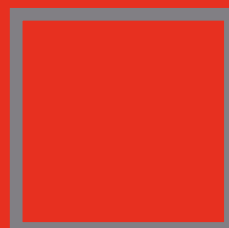

...that listens

The practice is truly multifunctional with strength in both agency and professional services. Both the practice and the individuals enjoy significant presence in the Bradford and Keighley business community providing an outstanding contact base and ability to reach the markets and fully recognise and understand the business communities property needs.

The presence and contact base enables the commercial agency service to truly perform enhanced by significant investment in IT facilities allowing instant provision of information and exposure.

Added strength is the ability to deliver professional services. Involvement and understanding of the markets leaves the practice well placed to advise with clarity and accuracy and the focused nature enables the individuals to advise on a range of issues without passing clients from one department to another.

...and performs

Whether you are looking to sell or let commercial property, acquire property or need valuation advice, help with a rent review or lease renewal Hayfield Robinson can provide a solution to these and many other property issues.

The practice will offer personal attention, quick response, a skilled solution and outstanding value. At all times you will be dealing closely with the individual doing your work. Hayfield Robinson is justifiably proud of what it does and this is why many of our clients have been with us for many years.
